

Bazelon Center for Mental Health Law Campus Mental Health Know Your Rights (2008)

The following questions should be posed to the Dean of Students or the Director of the Counseling Center:

1. "Have staff and faculty received adequate training to identify and provide support for students who have mental illnesses or are experiencing extreme emotional distress?"
2. "Are mental health services adequately available on your campus?"
3. "Are support services available to families of students who are receiving mental health services?"
4. "Have students received training and information about how to recognize warning signs in themselves or others?"
5. "Does your college or university maintain relationships with available mental health providers in the community?"
6. "Is there an adequate crisis management plan in place for students and staff to deal with a suicide or traumatic event?"

Source: "Your Rights in College: Students with Mental Health Impairments":
<https://adanc.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/Your-Rights-in-College-Mental-Health.pdf>

Leadership 21 Committee of the Judge David L. Bazelon Center for Mental Health Law,
Washington DC 2008